ESET Customer Advisory 2026-0013

July 24, 2026

Severity: High

Summary

A report of a local privilege escalation was submitted to ESET by Martin Orem. The vulnerability potentially allowed an attacker to write an arbitrary file with fully controlled content as a privileged user. ESET mitigated this by preparing fixed versions of the affected products.

Details

On systems with the affected ESET products installed, it was possible for an unprivileged local user to write arbitrary files to the disk. This was achieved through ESET's XPC (cross-process communication) service, which has root permissions and would accept connections from any user without authentication. An attacker could exploit this to write an arbitrary .plist file to the LaunchDeamon folder and, thus, achieve root code execution upon the next system relaunch.

The reserved CVE ID for this vulnerability is CVE-2026-7483, the CVSS v4.0 score is 8.5, with the following vector: CVSS:4.0/AV:L/AC:L/AT:N/PR:L/UI:N/VC:H/VI:H/VA:H/SC:N/SI:N/SA:N

To the best of our knowledge, no exploits exist in the wild that target this vulnerability.

Solution

ESET prepared fixed builds of the affected products and recommends upgrading to these or scheduling the upgrades in the near future. The fixed builds are available to download from www.eset.com or via ESET Repository.

- ESET Endpoint Security for macOS
 - version 9.1.3100.0 and later from the 9.1 version family
 - version 9.0.6400.0 and later from the 9.0 version family
 - version 8.1.300.0 and later from the 8.1 version family
- ESET Cyber Security for macOS
 - version 9.0.6300.0 and later
